

Terra Buckley

With over 25 years of experience in the pharma and biotech space, Terra brings extensive experience building and enhancing compliance and transparency programs for pre-commercial and commercial organizations. Prior to MedPro Systems, Terra was Vice President, Head of Compliance at Mesoblast, and prior to this was the Head of the Compliance Business Advisory Team at Celgene. Terra graduated with honors from Seton Hall Law School, earning her JD in health law with a concentration in compliance, and her undergraduate degree from the University of Connecticut in physiology and neurobiology. She is a member of the New Jersey Bar Association.