

Katherine Chaurette

Kathy Chaurette is Senior Vice President, Healthcare Law & Compliance at Blueprint Medicines. She has 20 years of experience advising biopharmaceutical companies on compliantly structuring comprehensive market access strategies, including pricing and contracting considerations, navigating associated federal and state price reporting and transparency requirements, and structuring programs facilitating affordable patient access to prescribed medicines. In addition, for the past year or so, Kathy has actively managed the evolution of Blueprint's global privacy program.