

Karen Day

Karen Day is a Senior Counsel at Pfizer focusing on regulatory law matters including, device and digital health, social media, advertising and promotion, the Hatch-Waxman Act and related exclusivities, and patent term extension. Prior to joining Pfizer, Karen worked in private practice as well as other at biopharmaceutical companies. She has both US and EU legal regulatory experience.