

Gary Del Vecchio

Gary has over 36 years of experience in the pharmaceutical industry including 20 in Healthcare Compliance. At his former company, Bristol Myers Squibb, Gary served as Executive Director, Compliance and Ethics and was responsible for Compliance related activities across their full portfolio of products including Medical Affairs, HCC investigations, Policies, Training and Monitoring.

Gary joined Janssen in 2016 as the Healthcare Compliance officer for the Cardiovascular and Metabolic and Puerto Rico organizations where he has been responsible for Commercial and Medical activities. His responsibilities have expanded to include support for Janssen Scientific Affairs, Global Medical Affairs and Global Oncology. Gary is a former Co-Chair of the Pharmaceutical Compliance Forum (PCF).