

Jacob Elberg, JD

Prof. Elberg is an Associate Professor at Seton Hall Law School, where he teaches courses in Health Care Fraud & Corruption and in Data Analytics and is Faculty Director of Seton Hall's Center for Health & Pharmaceutical Law and Seton Hall's Health Care Compliance Certificate Programs around the world. Prior to joining the faculty at Seton Hall, Prof. Elberg served in the Department of Justice for 12 years, heading the Health Care & Government Fraud Unit at the U.S. Attorney's Office for the District of New Jersey, where he supervised all criminal and civil health care matters and a team of 15 AUSAs.