

Rodrigo Grion, MS, MBA, CFA, FRM

Rodrigo Grion is Vice President of Compliance at McKesson Corporation, a Fortune 10 company. He is a seasoned compliance executive with extensive experience in the Medical Devices, Pharma and Financial Services industries, having designed, built, managed, and simplified risk management programs that cover 100+ countries. Rodrigo has extensive international and emerging markets experience, having led broad-based initiatives and investigations in multiple continents. He is also a frequent speaker at premier anti-corruption and healthcare compliance conferences around the world. Prior to joining McKesson, Rodrigo spent close to two decades as General Electric, where he held a variety of compliance executive positions.