

Jonathan Hecht, CPA, CFF, CFE

Jonathan Hecht is a Director at Resolution Economics, LLC and has over 16 years of experience conducting forensic accounting investigations and litigation support services in connection with accounting issues, whistleblower complaints, internal control matters, damages, and post-closing disputes. Jonathan has also provided consulting services to companies across a multitude of industries regarding regulatory compliance, business management and accounting matters. Jonathan's experience spans multiple industries, which include but are not limited to life sciences, medical devices, construction, manufacturing, consumer products, not-for-profits, financial services, and healthcare. Jonathan received his Bachelor of Science degree in Accounting at Binghamton University – School of Management. He is a member of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants (AICPA) and member of the New York State Society of CPA's (NYSSCPA).