

Sara Kimball, JD

Sara is Assistant General Counsel, Corporate Business Functions for Daiichi Sankyo, Inc. (DSI). Sara serves as the primary legal advisor for DSI's Information Technology and Compliance departments, with responsibility for contracting as well as providing legal support to business customers on legal and regulatory issues impacting DSI's U.S. Corporate Division. Sara is active in DSI's Business Employee Resource Groups including the Women's Forum. Sara graduated from George Washington University with a B.A. in Political Communication and earned her law degree from Seton Hall Law School. Sara's background includes positions in the corporate legal departments of global pharmaceutical companies and in firms leading M&A deals for mid-market enterprises.