

Melissa Lozner, J.D.

Melissa Lozner, J.D., serves as Senior Vice President, Chief Compliance Officer of Regeneron Pharmaceuticals, Inc. In this role, she oversees all aspects of Regeneron's global corporate compliance program. Prior to joining Regeneron, Ms. Lozner served as Chief Compliance Officer and Special Counsel of Rafael Holdings, where she was responsible for building a compliance program for a start-up biotechnology company. She also held a number of roles within Novartis Oncology, including Head of U.S. Ethics, Risk & Compliance, Head of Global Integrity & Compliance ad interim, and Senior Legal Counsel. Prior to joining the industry, Ms. Lozner was a litigation attorney at Cravath, Swaine & Moore as well as Lowenstein Sandler, and clerked in the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Sixth Circuit. Ms. Lozner earned a B.S. from Cornell University and a J.D. magna cum laude from Boston University School of Law.