

Seth H. Lundy, JD

Seth H. Lundy is deputy chair of the King & Spalding FDA & Life Sciences Practice Group, resident in Washington, DC. With over 25 years of industry experience, he focuses his practice on federal and state regulation of pharmaceutical, biotech, and medical device manufacturers, as well as healthcare providers and suppliers, including advising on corporate compliance, the Anti-Kickback Statute, False Claims Acts, the Sunshine Act, the Food, Drug & Cosmetic Act, pricing matters, and Medicare and Medicaid billing, coding, and reimbursement. Seth is widely recognized as a leading national authority on compliance with federal and state fraud and abuse laws. His practical, business-oriented approach earns accolades from sources such as Chambers Global, Chambers, USA, LMG Life Sciences, Best Lawyers, and Super Lawyers.