

Sérgio Pinto, MBA

Sérgio is a CCEP – Certified Compliance and Ethics Professional. Sérgio currently is the Senior Director – TPEC (third parties ethics and compliance) for Americas in Johnson and Johnson. Sérgio has more than 20 years of experience. He worked in several areas such as: Finance, Supply Chain and Health Care Compliance. He participated in the implementation of the Health Care Compliance program in the J&J Medical division in 2005 in Brazil and Latin America. He has experience in preparing and conducting due diligence and training in 3rd party intermediaries, as sales intermediaries and logistics intermediaries. He has a BS in Business Administration from PUC-SP and has a MBA from USP- Brazil. He is also certified in Health Care Compliance by Seton Hall University in USA and in the programs: Healthcare Compliance Implementation Leadership: Managing and Enhancing the Effective Compliance from INSEAD France and Latin American Health Care Compliance Certificate Program – University of Miami – USA.