

Maria Eugenia Quindimil, MA, MBA

Maria Eugenia (Maru) Quindimil is an ethical and results-driven pharmaceutical business and compliance leader with significant expertise in pharmaceutical sales and marketing. Her career span is more than 30 years, with a strong backbone in Business Compliance in JAPAC and LATAM regions. Lately, Maru launched her own consultancy firm, Socrates Healthcare Limited, based in Hong Kong and the USA. Her firm caters to Pharmaceutical and Medical devices companies, providing consulting services including compliance programs for SMEs, compliance professionals training and development, Compliance IQ for Business leaders, pre-auditing, monitoring, and analytics for KPIs risk management. Previously to this role, she was responsible for Ethics and Compliance in JAPAC, implementing from organizational and strategic development to implementation of processes and systems KPIs for AMGEN Asia Ltd, UCB Pharma & Merck Sharp & Dohme. Lately, she has obtained a Master's in Neurolinguistic programming, applying innovative techniques for negotiating and creativity challenges.