

Maureen Ruane, JD

Maureen Ruane is Director, Compliance Advisory Services, at MedPro Services, where she supports life science companies by providing tailored compliance program development, roadmap planning, risk assessments and more, to help customers build efficient and effective compliance and transparency policies and programs. Maureen has been an attorney and compliance professional for 30 years, and she has previously served as the Chief of the Healthcare and Government Fraud Unit at the U.S. Attorney's Office, District of New Jersey; as Vice President & Head of US Litigation for Novartis; and as an equity partner & Chair of the Healthcare Litigation, Investigations and Compliance Group at Lowenstein Sandler.