

Gregg Shapiro, JD

Gregg Shapiro is a Principal at Gregg Shapiro Law, LLC, a whistleblower law firm in Boston. Mr. Shapiro represents whistleblowers in False Claims Act qui tam cases, SEC whistleblower filings, and other whistleblower proceedings. For 16 years, Mr. Shapiro was an Assistant United States Attorney in the District of Massachusetts. During his career at the United States Attorney's Office, Mr. Shapiro led its Affirmative Civil Enforcement Unit from 2013 to 2021, and he brought cases against pharmaceutical manufacturers and other health care companies that resulted in over $3 billion in recoveries under the False Claims Act. He graduated from Stanford University and Harvard Law School.