

Scott Way

Scott Way joined Impulse Dynamics in November 2021 as its General Counsel and Compliance Officer. Scott has over twenty-five years of practicing law in public and private companies, including over sixteen years of medical device experience in companies such as DJO Global, LDR Spine (NASDAQ: LDRH), and Statera Spine. He has led companies through public offerings, public and private sales, asset divestitures, venture financings, and debt facilities. Scott has built several compliance programs from the ground up, with a strong emphasis on creating an ethical culture throughout an organization. Scott graduated magna cum laude from Kenyon College with a B.A. in Political Science and a Juris Doctorate from The University of Texas, where he was a Townes Rice scholar. Scott is active in the Texas Hill Country conservation efforts as a member of the Hill Country Conservancy and past chair of the Hays County Parks and Open Space Commission.
