

LB Wong, RN, MSN, MBA

LB Wong has been employed with Eli Lilly & Co for over 20 years. She has held various roles, leading Clinical Development, Global Clinical Operations and Global Health and is the Founder of the Lilly Nursing Forum. She currently is the Executive Director for the Lilly Grant Office where her team is responsible for strategic support of US and Global Independent Medical Education and Quality Improvement initiatives. She is active in the ACEHP/IACE community. LB holds a master's degree in nursing as well as MBA. She serves on various Boards of Directors for non-profits and volunteers for numerous organizations.